Meeting Commenced at 07:05 PM

Web Site:

Jan gave an update on the Web Site. The Web Site will be updated weekly. He would like any feedback anyone can give him so he can upgrade. Submit all event and flier information to Jan. He will then get it posted on the site.

Address of the site is: <http://start.at/mmscrace> email Jan at <mailto:jvojta@netzero.net>

Computer Tech:

Ken will send Jan the race results once a week.

The cards are all set to go.

There will be a new handicap every three races.

Send all waivers to Ken. Send all fees to Debra Caruso.

The cut off for racer fees and waivers is November 30, 2002.

Race Coordinator:

John Puestow has received no negative words from any of the hills regarding the race schedule.

Schedule looks good.

The hills vary on how they handle the selling of ski tickets for the race.

Race Crew:

Scott Stern said the race crew will handle all equipment, setup and timing of the race.

Host club will handle the score board and selling of tickets. Rest of clubs will handle gatekeeping.

Course setting will be done by certified course setters.

Race Crew will keep the equipment.

Todd Pfander motioned that the Race Crew will take care of all race setup chores and timing for all races excluding the Indianhead races.

Seconded by Jim Robinson.

Motion approved.

Indianhead:

You can take one of the three packages, or a package and the bus.

Try to book through the group. If doing your own package, inform John Vojta so he can tell the people at Indianhead that we steered so many people to the hill.

Have all race chairpersons try to push the trip.

Deadline for the packages is before the first race.

Finance:

The banquet made $543..57.

The week end trip lost money.

No one needs a new bib at this time.

Budget will be similar to last year, allowing for no new bib fees.

This year's banquet:

John Mack said a $100 deposit was sent to the South Shore Yacht Club. Banquet will be held April 26, 2003.

The awards for individual races were ordered. Year end awards will be ordered around the end of February.

Old and New Business:

Scott motioned that we will ignore any FIS rule on ski length. Will let the individual skier decide which ski length to use.

Seconded by Todd Pfander/

Motion Approved.

The next MMSC meeting will be held at the Butler Inn on Tuesday November 19, 2002 at 7:00 PM.

Still need a volunteer for the Vice Chairperson.

Meeting ended at 7:53 PM
